Foreword . . .

Most young people in America during the course of their growing up, spend four years in the public high schools. During this time, the mingling of people produces many and lasting friendships, terminated by the commencement exercises held in June.

After these commencement exercises, some 180 students here at Madera High will shake hands, say goodbye, and part to go their various ways, many never to meet again. We present, in this '54 Blue and White, a pictorial revue of the school year, in hopes that it will serve to renew acquaintances and bring familiar faces and incidents to life again for you in years to come.

Principal's Message

MR. L. C. THOMPSON    MRS. PAT ROOT

The graduates of Madera Union High School in June, 1954, will probably refer to themselves in the future as the first senior class to have used our beautiful new Home Economics Building. It is true that the foods and clothing laboratories, and the furniture in this new unit are beautiful in design, color, and workmanship; perhaps they are even more beautiful than those which we find in our own homes.

A parent at the first open house held for this building remarked that young people today fail to appreciate the structures now being erected for their education. This fairly common belief bears much thought. Almost unanimously high school students tend to live up to the challenges given them. It makes little difference whether that challenge is the chemistry experiment, in the parading of a band, in the production of an operetta, in playing a basketball game, or in using beautiful equipment in a foods laboratory. It makes a world of difference, however, whether we expect them to meet the challenge. They sense the quality of expectation and the strength of our faith in them, and react accordingly.

Board of Trustees

Among the many duties of the Vice Principal are the uncheery ones of editing the daily bulletin and computing graduation credits of the seniors. These and many more Mr. Vollborn goes about each day, accompanying each with a wide smile and a friendly word.

Active, bustling, always in a happy hurry, is Miss Jardine, our dean of girls. Taking time from her many duties only long enough to be her friendly self with everyone who comes to her door, Miss Jardine adds sparkle to the atmosphere of the Madera High office.

Dean of Girls
MARY JARDINE

RINALDO WREN—Dean of Boys

Mr. Wren's quiet, steady assurance, and warm interest in student welfare belies his chief and most unpleasant duties of attendance and discipline enforcement. Truly, Mr. Wren is one of the major factors in keeping Madera High running smoothly.

MAIN OFFICE

Checking absences and tardiness is only one of the many duties that keeps the main office in constant activity. Left, Jim Lemm, Marie Burgess, Shirley Miller.

HEALTH OFFICE

Keeping tab on who's absent, and why, keeps the health office busy all day long every day. Left, a student checks her absence slip with Mrs. Lois Chambers. Her assistants are Charlotte Cooper and Sheila Burke.

GUIDANCE OFFICE

TREASURER'S OFFICE

Keeping track of all the money in school is a big job. At left performing said job are: Les Beckman, Carl Rynerson, and Carmen Gallegos.

AGRICULTURE OFFICE

CAFETERIA COOKS

BUS DRIVERS

CUSTODIANS

Commissioners

The Board of Commissioners is the student governing body of Madera High. Headed this year by Presidents John Stenovich and Phil Baumbach, the commissioners made a few changes in the school constitution. The streamlined edition of the constitution makes the class presidents members of the board of commissioners. Again Miss Jane Ellen Curry was advisor for the group, and accompanied it on many trips out of town for meetings with various other school leaders throughout the state and the valley. Serving on the board is another one of the many ways in which Madera High trains its students for jobs of leadership later in life.

Fall Council

Boys' Federation

The Boys' Federation is an organization devoted to and run solely by the boys of Madera High. The chief concern of the organization is not the making of money or the holding of showy social affairs, but merely to get all the boys together once in a while for some entertainment. The club this year was headed in the fall by President Bob Lively, Vice President David Conn, Secretary Bob Johnson, and Sergeants-at-Arms Mike Roberts and Dan Sotelo. In the spring the organization was managed by President Ted Amey, Vice President Ronald Wright, Secretary Cliff Davis, and Sergeants-at-Arms Jim Hernandez and Bob Stanfield. The advisor was Mr. George Rasmussen.

Spring Council

Fall Council

Girls' League

Being a large organization certainly doesn't hinder the activities of the versatile Girls' League any. Again this year, the squaws of MUHS made their group come through with programs like: Slave Day, the Blossom Day Festival, the Girls' League Picnic, and for the first time this year, the Mother-Daughter party. On the service end of the activities, one of the most noteworthy feats of the club was the paying of the postage charges on the books collected by MUHS students to send to Japan. The coveted Girls' League Pin, a symbol of outstanding service to the high school (doing things around the campus that no credit is given for in class), instigated the performance of many daily chores by the girls. Such is one of the many services established and perpetuated by the Girls' League.

Blue and White '54

Opening the 1954 Blue and White and thumbing through the introductory pages brings to mind the thought that there may be nothing but pictures to this book. Well, that's not too far from wrong. With the frequent use of full-page pictures and little copy, this year's book is a pictorial presentation with a capital 'P'. As usual, there were times when the nerves wore thin . . . the midnight oil ran free in the rustic rooms of old MUHS, many a brow was wiped and many a sigh was uttered before the final copy shipment went off to the publisher. But she's finished . . . here's hoping you're as proud of her as we are.

Playing to an audience in the Melody Hall December 4, 5, and 6, this year's Senior Play was "Out of the Frying Pan." Here is the cast: Kate, the cynic, Rosemary Cuccia, always pestering Muriel, Judy Schoettler; Norman, Phil Baumbach, the only one of the bunch with good sense; Marge, Laura Sordi, always necking with Tony, Jon Ecklund; Dottie, Mary Pat Preciado, just drifts along; Mr. Kinney, Tom Barnes, the harrassed producer; Mrs. Garnet, the landlady, played by Cherrie Lou Mendoza; Mr. Coburn, Jim Lemm, is the only successful one of them all . . . a businessman; and the little fingers of the long arm of the law, policemen (?) Gary Cheek and Bob Roberts.

"Don't cut it!" says Cherrie Lou Mendoza. Phil Baumbach looks determined, and Tom Kenefick looks convincingly worried about the situation.

Junior Revue—'53

WHEN TV COMES TO MADERA

The 1953 Spring presentation by the class of 1954 was "When TV Comes to Madera." A rip-roaring gala event from the first night, the show, under the guidance of director David Linn played to a packed house all three nights. In the presentation was a general cross-section of the television entertainment to be offered on the airwaves when TV came to Madera.

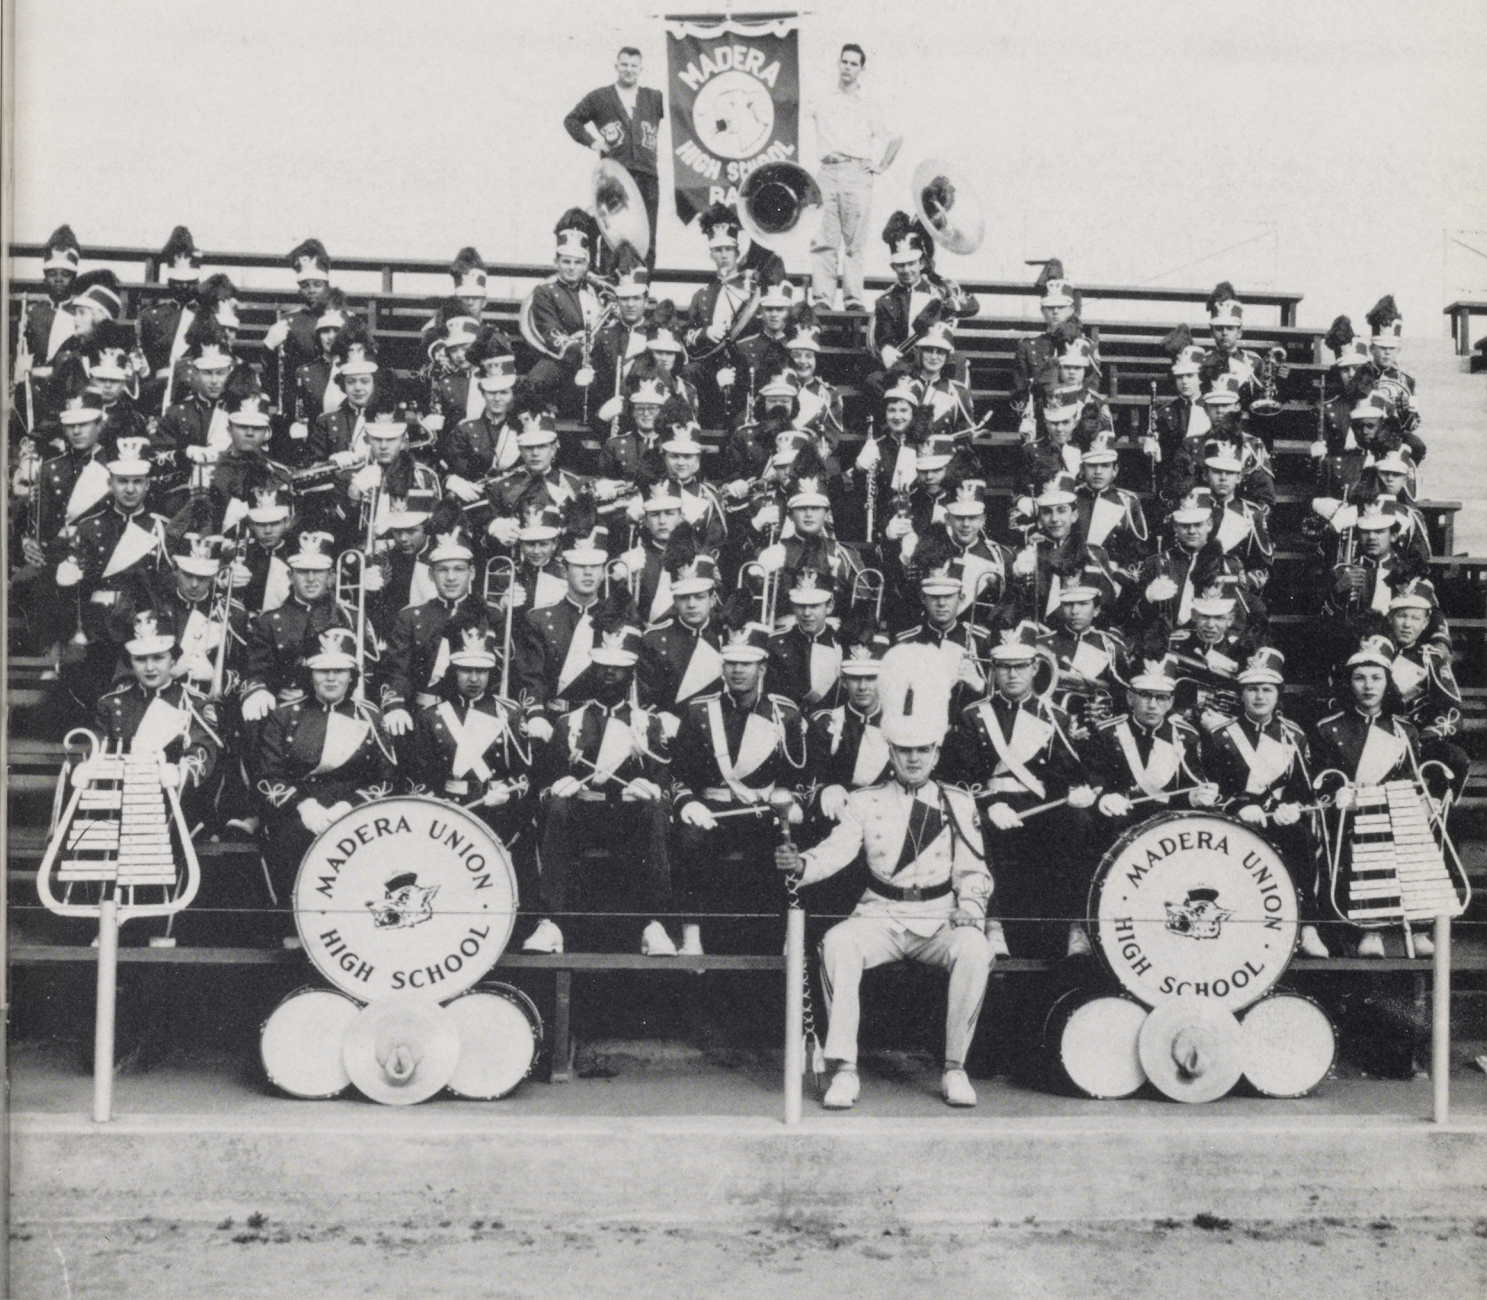

Above: Ken Montanari and Pat Swanson stole the show with a rendition of "Marrying for Love" from "Call Me Madam."

Training Madera's future farmers is in no sense of the word an easy or simple task, but the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America has had a hand in the chore for quite some time. Only boys taking vocational agriculture in high school may belong to this organization, which is one of the busiest on the campus.

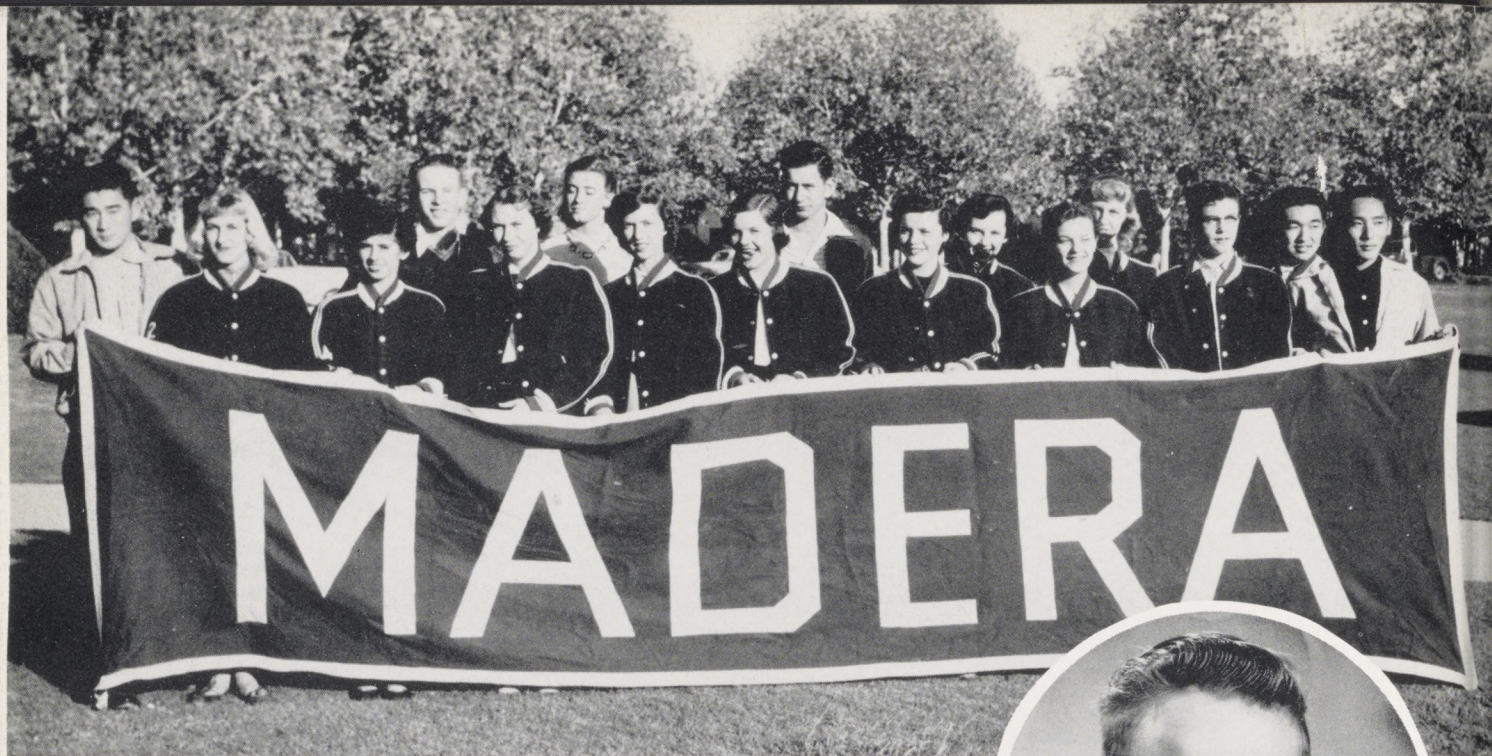

Annually this group sponsors enough activities to make a list nearly as long as this book, but some of the major ones are: The Barn Dance, Adobe Field Day, and the Parent and Son Banquet. For the first time this year, they sponsored what they hope will turn into an annual affair, the local FFA Fair. To gain a fair idea of the number of awards and prizes these boys win each year, it would be easiest to say, "Just pick up a list of all the things that Future Farmers compete in, award first places to Madera's members, the grand prize to the Madera Chapter, and let it go at that." Faculty advisors for the group include Mr. Evans, Mr. Lea, and Mr. Posey.

The 1953 season's closing found Madera next to last in Yosemite League competition. A victory by forfeit over undefeated Fresno High (which forfeited four league games) and a tie with Edison, put Madera ahead of Visalia by one-half game.

The coyotes were a high spirited bunch of boys, and despite all too many injuries, they played hard all the way throughout the season. Halfbacks Dave Conn and Marvin Marquez each won honors. Marvin was the Best Sportsman. Conn was named The Most Improved Player. Tackle Dan Sotelo was good enough to be the Most Valuable Player. John Stenovich was called Team Captain. Danny was Co-Captain.

245-pound Sotelo and 190-pound Bob Johnson were named to represent Madera on the first All-League team.

Ben Robinson was one of the best quarterbacks in the league. Ben, a junior, will be back next year. Ed Banniser did a great job as fullback. Filling out the remaining positions on the team were, John Stockli, a 160-lb. senior at center; Ron Wright, senior at guard; L. J. Wilson, a sophomore at tackle. Cliff Davis and Johnson were the regular ends.

The Madera "B" football team wound up its 1953 season with a four win and five loss record. This included three league victories. It was coach Puss Miles second year at their helm. His assistant was Will Townsend.

The team showed plenty of fire in its games. Win or lose, they played their best.

Team captain, Jim Hernandez, a sophomore half-back, was the big gun. Jim was in on every play, going all out. Little Barney Gonzales gave many a thrill with his fine play. Clarence Yllaregui, Loyd Amey, Bob Hart, and Walt Lovelady will help to improve the varsity next year, as will many other fine "B" players.

The Madera Union High Varsity Basketball team, ended the 1953-54 season with an overall record of 19 wins and 4 losses. They ranked third in Northern Yosemite League competition, following Roosevelt and Edison. Coach Bob Wuesthoff of San Jose State, was this year's mentor. His usual starters were: Bob Johnson, Polly Carver, Ed Lara, Bob Murray, and Henry Polonco. Bob Johnson was second in the race for league scoring honors. The "Big Swede," earned 226 league points for an average of 18-8 points per game. He also set a Madera record of 31 points in one game. At the year's end, he was elected to the All-League team, as well as team co-captain.

"B" Basketball

The "B" team of the 1953-54 season wasn't as successful as it has been, as it failed to win any league games. Despite this, it showed that it had plenty of spirit, and that the members were willing to try. Coach Bill Gamboa's boys learned plenty of tricks which should prove valuable when they go up to the varsity.

Under the coaching of varsity basketball mentor Bob Wuesthoff, the "C" basketball squad finished a very successful season with a three win and one loss record. The team tied with the Merced quintet for first place in the league. Those on the team who showed the best were: Ron Martin, John Sambueso, Gene McLaughlin, and Happy Chappell. Madera should hear more from these boys in the years to come. High scoring honors went to Gene McLaughlin who dunked 33 points in league play. Happy Chappell was next with 32. Bill Cheatham, and John Sambueso, scored 30 and 28 respectively.

KEN BOEKENOOGAN

Wrestling is a new sport at Madera High. It was introduced two years ago by Coach Fred Mangini, and since that time it has developed into almost a major sport. As many boys go out for the grappling team as go out for basketball or track. Marvin Marquez won the California State Championship in the 135 pound class. He represented

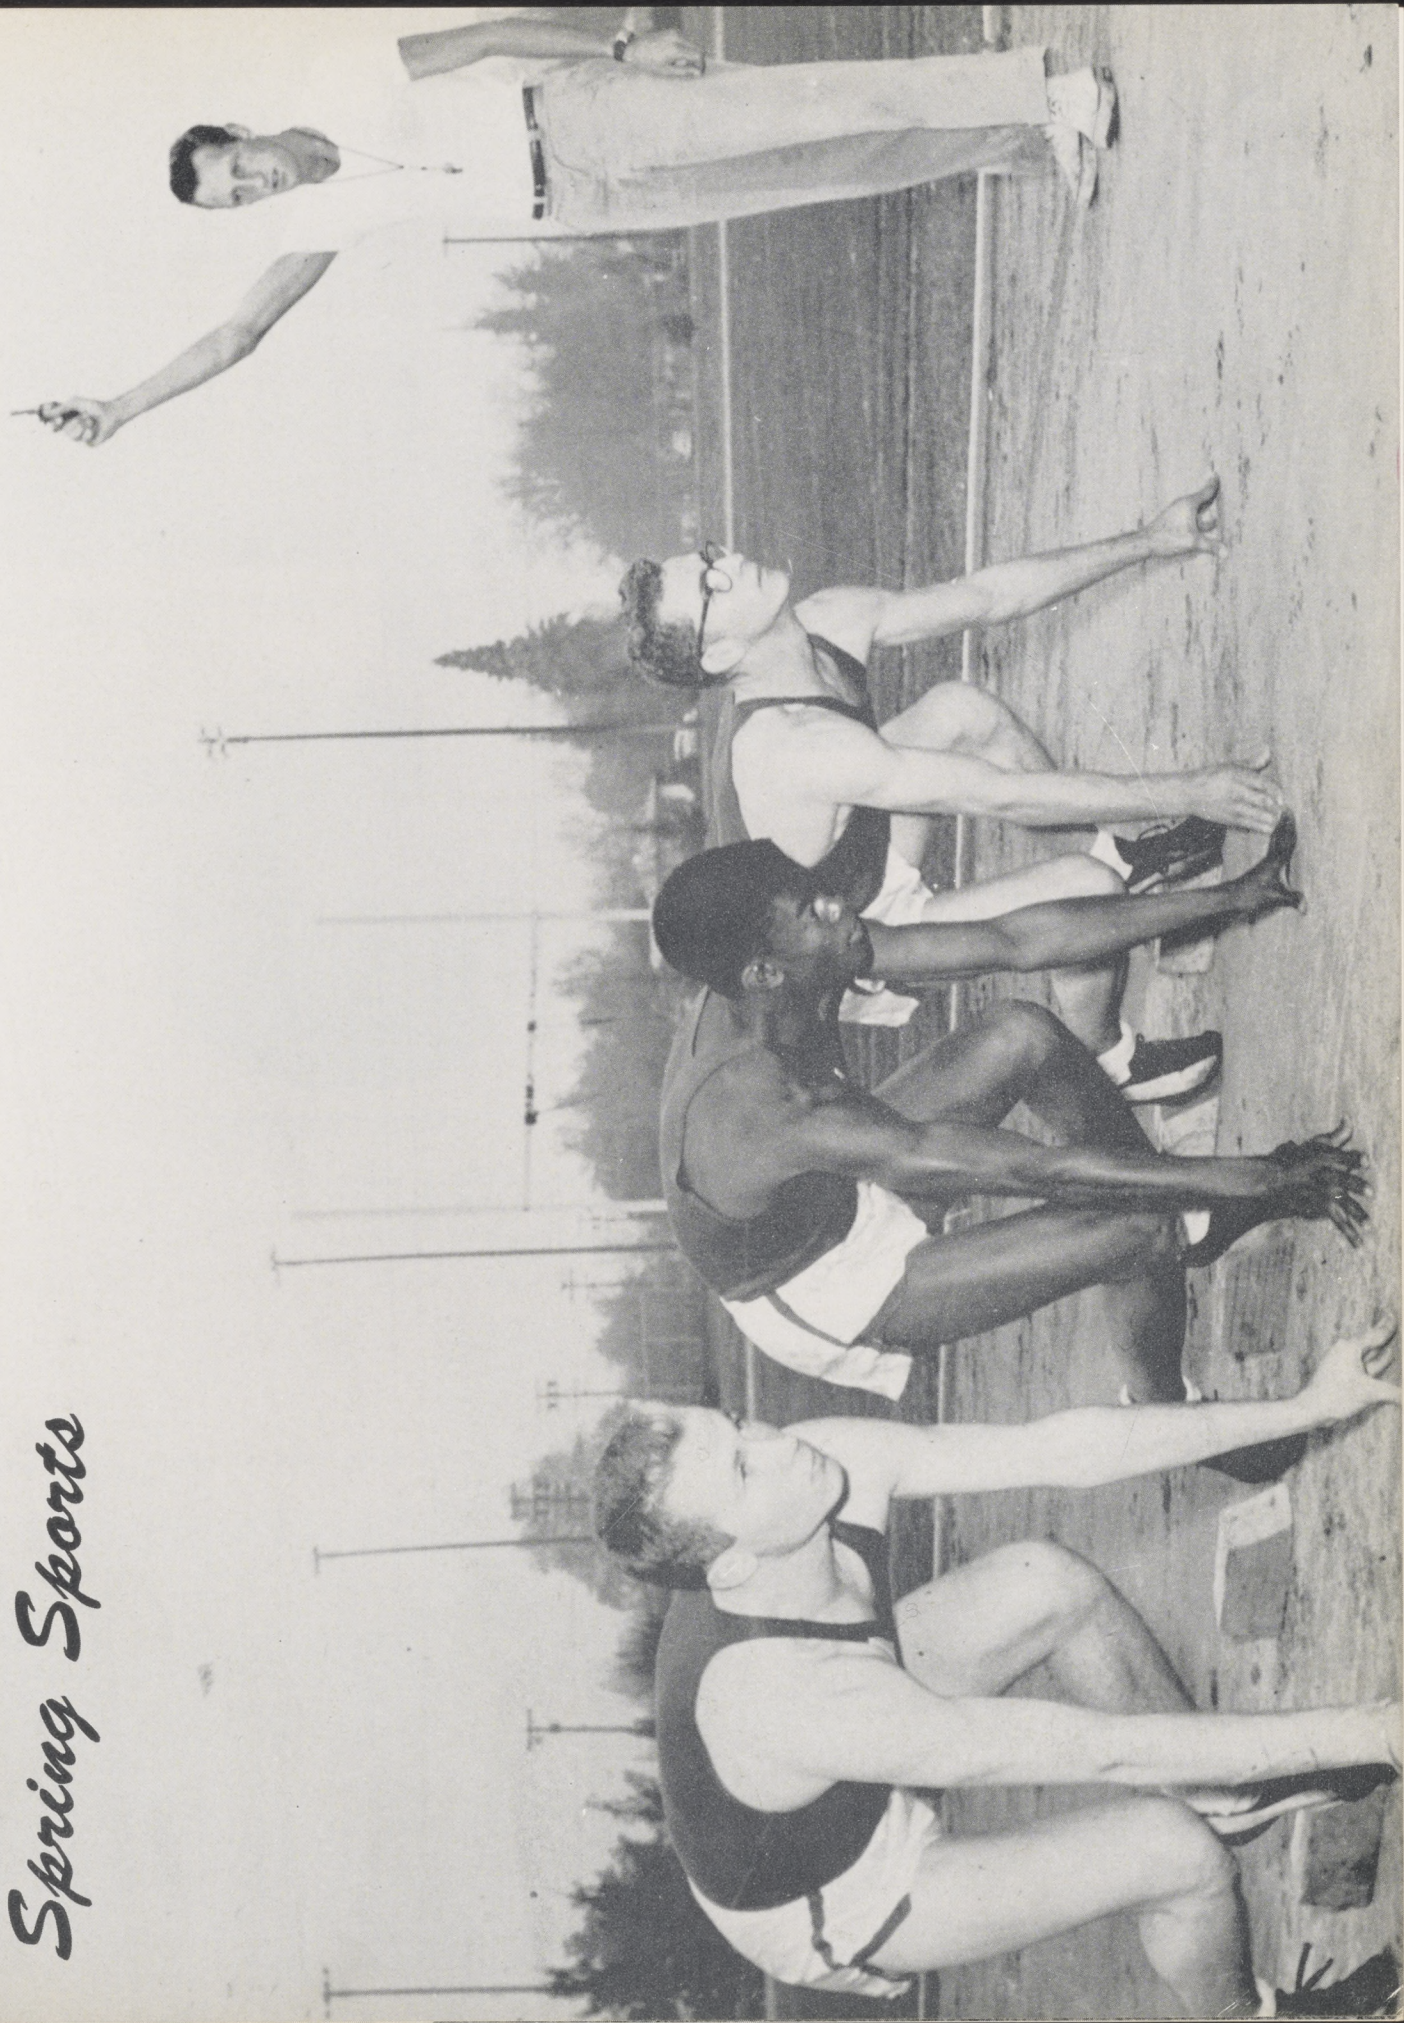

California in the national championships. Alphonso Trillo, a freshman, was second in the state finals in his class, and Ken Boekenoogan was good enough for a third in the state meet. All three were San Joaquin Valley Champions. As a squad, they earned eleven points and a tie for fourth in the overall state standings.

"A" Track

The two best prospects facing coach George Rasmussen this year were Vernon Smith and Elbert Hall. Both were expected to do well in the high jump, as both have done six feet in the past year.

Hall went five feet ten inches the first time he attempted to jump. Smith is also prominent in the broad jump and the dashes. Some of the meets in which Madera will compete are: The West Coast Relays, the Yosemite Meet and the Valley Finals.

GEORGE RASMUSSEN

"B" Track

Madera's "B" class cindermen were a lively, high spirited group. They gave their all throughout every meet in which they participated. Napoleon Green, Don Paris, Willie Jones, Clinton Jackson, George Staggs, and Jim Brosi were just a few of the veterans who greeted Coach Rasmussen on the opening day of practice. Freshman Lloyd Amey looked good as he practiced with the shot. Napoleon Green came close to the record in the high jump. Brosi, Staggs, and Jones all looked good in the distances.

Next year, many of these boys will have developed enough to go on to the varsity squad.

"C" Track

This year's "C" track team was made up of mostly freshmen and sophomores. Several boys were returning lettermen. They were: Jim Hernandez, John Aoki, and Gene McLaughlin. The "C" team followed the same schedule as did the "A" and "B" teams. Coach George Rasmussen led the squad, and helped some of them to gain experience for future varsity positions.

Tennis Squad

The Tennis team was a busy group of students. They really hustled all of the way. Teach Fuller was in charge of the squad. Her most successful student in the boys' class was Ronald Wright. The boys' doubles were played by Vern Peterson and Niel Buttram. Beverly McCall was tops in the girls' division. Marlene Gillete, Vera Peterson, and Margie Dominici, were others who were good. Marlene and Vera usually played doubles. Bob Dutcher looked good for the boys.

BOB MACHADO

Coach Bob Machado had his boys in regular practice as we went to press. Bob Johnson was expected to win his share of games as a pitcher. In the one game that had been played, Toyo Shitanishi held Kerman to two hits as Madera won 6 to 1. Pete Gonzales also was slated to pitch. Pete Kirk and Bill Rosskopf alternated at catcher. Senior Bob Stanfield was back at first base. Vern Schnaidt, a newcomer, looked good at second base. Charlie Gutierrez, and Ben Robinson were prophesied for third and shortstop. The outfield used Rocky Teranishi, Bill Wattenbarger, Bill Musick, and Ken Adolphson. Bob Wuesthoff has offered his services as an assistant to Machado.

Junior Varsity Baseball

Coach Joe Keeble took over the duties of Junior Varsity baseball mentor this year. The purpose of the Junior Varsity Squad is to allow the boys who can't make the varsity a chance to learn baseball, and to have a good time doing it. Several players had previous experience on this team. They were Jim Barsotti, Lupe Garcia, Ronald Chaffin, Jerry Fleming and Barney Gonzales. The J.V.'s follow the same schedule as does the varsity. They usually play on the Lincoln diamond.

Squad

Swimming is the sport which comes to the minds of most people on hot summer afternoons. It is a sport in which all can participate.

The people who are pictured on this page especially enjoy swimming. They are members of the Madera High swimming team. Some of them are veterans. These are Floyd Cardwell, Dave Conn, Roger Melikian, Jon Ecklund, Wes Bass, and Bob Roberts.

Bass has a reputation as a good diver, while Cardwell and Conn are experienced in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle races. Jon Ecklund and Bob Roberts participate in the 220 yard swim. Gary Stefanelli is also in this event.

Athletic director Fred Mangini expects the team to do very well.

Varsity Lettermen, Now One Part of the Block "M"

With the thought in mind of both expanding interest and influence of boys' organizations, and at the same time making the Block "M" Club a more workable unit, Mr. Fred Mangini has single handedly revolutionized the organization and foundation of the Block "M" Society. The club, now composed of three sub-organizations—the Coyotes ("A" lettermen), the Pack ("B" Lettermen), and the Cubs ("C") lettermen—is rapidly on its way to becoming one of the most active on the campus.

Its first project this year, the Heart Fund Drive, was symbolic of the progress of the club, and a milestone on the road to more community service which the club will sponsor.

The Coyotes (40 members) as well as the Cubs (12 members) were sponsored by Mr.

Mangini, while the Pack (70 members) was handled by Mr. Bob Wuesthoff. The varsity club, it might be pointed out, is actually the administrative body while the subordinate clubs do most of the labor on the projects. President Marvin Marquez is actually in charge of all three clubs. Barney Gonzales was president of the "B" organization, while Bill Cheatham was in charge of the "C." Sporting a letterman sweater from now on will not necessarily mean that the wearer is a bona fide member of that honor society . . . for accompanying the varsity letter that all will wear must be the Coyote shoulder patch of the Block "M" Society.

Dunnigan, B. Cheatham, B. McDaniel, D. Maroon.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION LETTER WINNERS are: Ann Minamoto, Florence Gee, Willie Marsh, Sandra Jamfrey, Ruth Newcomb, Betty Scroggins.

Girls' Athletic Association

A typical scene of one of the many activities at noon sponsored by the effervescent girls.

To provide activity, to promote good sportsmanship, to develop healthy bodies . . . these are the principles of the Girls' Athletic Association. With the competition in the noon tournaments keener every year, the number of letter winners increasing every year, and the participants increasing every year, it is obvious that the organization is achieving those ends. Miss Lorraine Bowlus again this year headed the group, and saw with pride and satisfaction the larger and more enthusiastic turnout for the noon games, both in participation and in spectators.
